To Whom It May Concern:

Keystone Digital Imaging Inc, Headquartered at 200 Racoosin Drive, Aston ,Pa,19014, is a non-exclusive authorized Savin Dealer.

KDI has been an authorized Savin dealer for over 20 years. Over that period KDI has won numerous Ricoh awards for both sales success and customer service. Today, KDI is one of the largest Savin dealerships in the country.

Ricoh Americas Corporation directly manufactures and distributes three product lines which are all considered to be part of the Ricoh Family Group, Ricoh, Savin and Lanier. These product lines exactly identical in terms of specifications and all manufactured in the same plants.

KDI is also a Certified Ricoh Champs partner in Commercial Imaging as well as Ricoh Production equipment. The program qualifies dealers to analyze customer business challenges and prescribe custom services drawing from Ricoh's business information solutions expertise. The CHAMPS certification program confirms that a dealer has successfully completed all Ricoh Services certification requirements for a particular specialized service or solution offering
